

Nominations received for potential heritage listing

Council welcomed nominations of items and places from members of the community from 8 July to 4 August 2019, to consider for inclusion as new heritage items in Cumberland. These nominations will be considered during Stage 2 of the Cumberland Heritage Study. The nominations received for potential heritage listing are listed as follows:

Submission 1: Two items proposed relating to Greystanes House, Prospect Hill

- Workers Cottage, Greystanes House
- Pine tree

Submission 2: Multiple Properties

- 17 Nottinghill Road, Lidcombe
- Corner property on Nottinghill Road and The Boulevarde (could be 31 or 33 Nottinghill Road, Lidcombe)
- 65 Kerrs Road, Lidcombe
- 71 Kerrs Road, Lidcombe
- Mr and Mrs Armstrong's two shops on Kerrs Road, Lidcombe

Submission 3: Area in Lidcombe

- Entire area including Kerrs Road, Nottinghill Road, Carroll Street, Raymond Street Intersection including nos. 63, 65 and 71.
- 17 Nottinghill Road, Lidcombe and its two shop fronts on Kerrs Road

Submission 4: RMS Phillips traffic signal control box at the north western corner of Great Western Highway and Hawkesbury Road

Submission 5: Auburn Gallipoli Mosque, Dartbrook Rd cnr Gelibolou Pde, Auburn

- One of the seven sites identified for consideration for heritage listing by the former Auburn Heritage Committee.

Submission 6: St Andrew's Church (now Auburn Presbyterian Church), 33 Queen St, Auburn

- One of the seven sites identified for consideration for heritage listing by the former Auburn Heritage Committee.

Submission 7: Ukrainian Church, 27 Mary St (55 – 57 Church St), Lidcombe

- One of the seven sites identified for consideration for heritage listing by the former Auburn Heritage Committee.

Submission 8: Russian Orthodox Church, 56 – 60 Vaughan St, Lidcombe

- One of the seven sites identified for consideration for heritage listing by the former Auburn Heritage Committee.

Submission 9: Integricare Pre-school (occupying Federation-era building), 21 Harrow Rd, Auburn.

- One of the seven sites identified for consideration for heritage listing by the former Auburn Heritage Committee.

Submission 10: 'Eminem Kids' childcare centre in Federation-era house, 59 Mary St, Auburn

- One of the seven sites identified for consideration for heritage listing by the former Auburn Heritage Committee.

Submission 11: 43-45 Alice Street, Auburn

Submission 12: Brown's Buildings - historic main street façade, 2-10 John Street, Lidcombe

Submission 13: Pritchard Building, Auburn Road, near cnr of Queen Street, Auburn

Submission 14: Jantzen Swimwear Factory (formerly, now China Fair), 32 Parramatta Road, Lidcombe (cnr Ostend Street)

Submission 15: Interior murals, Auburn Centre for Community, (Former Auburn Bowling club) 'Bowling through the ages' or 'History of bowling', 44A Macquarie Rd, Auburn

Submission 16: Headstone for "Royal". In Memory of ROYAL Born 1923 Died 1933. Factory Street, Clyde (Granville)

Submission 17: 9 Mary Street, Auburn (cnr Harrow Road)

Submission 18: Jamieson's Stone Cottage, 17 Nottinghill Road, Lidcombe

Submission 19: Angophora costata (Smooth-barked apple), 2 Normanby Road, Auburn

Submission 20: Street trees - mature native trees (Melaleuca and Eucalypt), Park Road (between South Parade and Queen Street)

Submission 21: The Oaks Centre bounded by Hawkesbury Road, Nolan Cres, Church Street and unnamed rear lane, 74 Hawkesbury Road, Westmead

Submission 22: Former Housing Commission of NSW Estate, Westmead

Submission 23: Waddangalli Woodland, Bounded by Campbell Hill Road, Barbers Road and the Prospect to Potts Hill pipeline, Guildford